RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

House Resolution 45

Representative Porter introduced House Resolution 45:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring Marushka Grogan.

Whereas, Marushka Grogan, an esteemed resident of Indianapolis and a high school junior at the Grogan Home School, has achieved national recognition for exemplary volunteer services by receiving a 2008 Prudential Spirit of Community Award;

Whereas, This prestigious award, presented by Prudential Financial in partnership with the National Association of Secondary School Principals, honors young volunteers across America who have demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to serving their communities;

Whereas, Marushka Grogan earned this award by giving generously of her time and energy to disadvantaged children at the Martin Luther King Community Center;

Whereas, Marushka Grogan designed a curriculum, raised money for art supplies, and taught 90-minute lessons in music, dance, and visual art daily to 6- and 7-year-old children for six weeks; and

Whereas, The success of the state of Indiana, the strength of our communities, and the overall vitality of American society depend, in great measure, upon the dedication of young people like Marushka Grogan who use their considerable talents and resources to serve others: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives congratulates Marushka Grogan as a recipient of a Prudential Spirit of Community Award in recognition of her outstanding record of volunteer service, peer leadership, and community spirit and extends its best wishes for her continued success and happiness.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Marushka Grogan and her family.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 46

Representative Welch introduced House Resolution 46:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring Dr. Hal E. Broxmeyer.

Whereas, Dr. Hal E. Broxmeyer, a pioneer in the field of umbilical cord blood transplantation for the treatment of leukemia and anemia, was awarded the 2007 E. Donnell Thomas Prize at the annual meeting of the American Society of Hematology;

Whereas, Dr. Broxmeyer's research and scientific discoveries led to the successful use of cord and placental blood for treating malignant and nonmalignant disorders;

Whereas, Dr. Broxmeyer was present when the first cord blood transplant was performed in 1989 and has helped make more than 2,000 transplants possible since then;

Whereas, Dr. Broxmeyer is a professor of medicine, scientific director of Walther Oncology Center, and chair of the Department of Microbiology and Immunology at the Indiana University School of Medicine; and

Whereas, Dr. Broxmeyer is also the recipient of the 2002 Karl Landsteiner Memorial Award presented by the American Association of Blood Banks recognizing original research contributing to the field of blood-related disease and treatments: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives congratulates Dr. Hal E. Broxmeyer on receiving the 2007 E. Donnell Thomas Prize.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Dr. Hal E. Broxmeyer.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 47

Representative Battles introduced House Resolution 47:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION recognizing the Lincoln High School instrumental program.

Whereas, For 100 years, Lincoln High School has been providing its students with the opportunity to participate in its exceptional instrumental program;

Whereas, The Pride of the Green has been a finalist in the state Marching Band Competition six times—in 2000, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, and 2007;

Whereas, The Lincoln High School instrumental program is an inspiration to all school bands; and

Whereas, Outstanding accomplishments and exceptional educational programs deserve special recognition, especially those that have withstood the test of time: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives recognizes the Lincoln High School instrumental program for its many contributions to the students of Lincoln High School and the numerous awards recognizing their great talent.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the members of the Lincoln High School program, the director of the instrumental program, and the principal of Lincoln High School.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 48

Representative Crooks introduced House Resolution 48:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring Craig Harner.

Whereas, Craig Harner was a volunteer with the Peace Corps working in the Kingdom of Tonga in the South Pacific;

Whereas, The mission of a Peace Corps volunteer is "to serve their country in the cause of peace by living and working in developing countries";

Whereas, Since its creation, more than 190,000 Peace Corps volunteers have been invited by host countries to work on issues ranging from AIDS education to information technology and environmental preservation;

Whereas, Craig Harner was given the assignment of Business Development Volunteer in an area that had 80% of its businesses destroyed;

Whereas, Craig Harner was responsible for training the lending staff of the Tongan Development Bank on preparing and analyzing financial statements and assisting the bank's clients with improving their own businesses;

Whereas, Craig Harner soon realized that his job would be much more challenging than he had ever expected, but also much more rewarding; and

Whereas, Craig Harner helped more than 1,000 small business owners improve their technical skill and quality of life by the time he completed his two years of service with the Peace Corps; Craig Harner willingly gave of his time and knowledge to help those who needed his expertise: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives thanks Craig Harner for his service to mankind and his selfless, dedicated spirit.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Craig Harner.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 49

Representative Stilwell introduced House Resolution 49:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring Police Chief David Faulkenberg.

Whereas, Police Chief David Faulkenberg has spent 31 years of his life enforcing the law;

Whereas, On March 3, that part of his career will come to an end when he retires as police chief;

Whereas, David Faulkenberg joined the Tell City police force in 1977, was promoted to sergeant in 1986, became assistant police chief in 1992, and rose to the rank of chief in 1997;

Whereas, As police chief, David Faulkenberg presided over several departmental changes, including a transition to a new police station, an increase in the number of police calls in the city, and more calls for services in other areas of the county;

Whereas, Always a proponent of training, Chief Faulkenberg encouraged his officers to improve their skills in several areas, including crime-scene investigation, crisis and hostage negotiations, and drug interdiction;

Whereas, Chief Faulkenberg was named the 1999 Community Trustee of the Year by Leadership Perry County; and

Whereas, Police Chief David Faulkenberg has devoted his life to protecting and serving the citizens of Tell City: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives thanks Police Chief David Faulkenberg for his years of dedicated service to the citizens of Tell City and the state of Indiana and wishes him continued success and happiness in all his future endeavors.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Police Chief David Faulkenberg and his family.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 50

Representatives Welch and Pierce introduced House Resolution 50:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring Pat Wilson.

Whereas, The National Council for the Social Studies, the largest association in the country devoted exclusively to social studies education, selected Pat Wilson as the 2007 National Social Studies Teacher of the Year;

Whereas, Pat Wilson is a well-rounded teacher whose work in the classroom is worthy of this award;

Whereas, It is her work outside the classroom, however, that sets Pat Wilson apart;

Whereas, Pat Wilson is the cofounder and current leader of the Bloomington High School North Habitat for Humanity Chapter;

Whereas, The Bloomington chapter is the only student chapter to build a home in six consecutive years; and

Whereas, Pat Wilson's work in and out of the classroom has dramatically affected the lives of her students and has helped to make each one of them better citizens: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives congratulates Pat Wilson on her selection as the 2007 National Social Studies Teacher of the Year and thanks her for her dedication to her students and her community.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Pat Wilson.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 51

Representatives Buck and Turner introduced House Resolution 51:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION celebrating Larry "Bud" Wright as Indiana's winningness active football coach.

Whereas, Larry "Bud" Wright was born to coach and inspire others;

Whereas, Bud Wright began his football career as a player himself for Sheridan High School;

Whereas, Bud Wright pursued his academic goals while attending Ball State University for his undergraduate degree and Butler University for his master's degree;

Whereas, Bud Wright accepted his first teaching job at North Miami High School in 1963, and then moved on to a position at Mount Ayr High School in 1965;

Whereas, Seizing the opportunity to return to the school he loved, Bud Wright joined the staff of Sheridan High School in 1966, and has served as coach for the football team since that time;

Whereas, Family has always been of central importance to Coach Wright. He and his wife Jayne have two sons and two daughters and also enjoy the great blessing of grandchildren;

Whereas, Coach Wright has built a top-rate football program at Sheridan High School and has received numerous accolades through the years;

Whereas, Under Coach Wright's leadership, Sheridan High School in 2007, won its 3rd consecutive and 9th overall Class 1A state football championship;

Whereas, A coach can be judged as effective in several ways. One way a coach can be judged effective is by excelling in his or her ability to recruit the best talent to a team, by instilling knowledge of the game into his or her players, and by leading practices and drills to ensure success and to create competitive advantage. And yet another way a coach can be judged effective is by being someone who inspires the young people on his or her team to be quality individuals, to have a good work ethic, and to serve as good role models for others. Coach Bud Wright is one of those unique coaches who is effective in both of these ways;

Whereas, Coach Bud Wright has become a legend in Indiana high school football history and is now the State of Indiana's winningness active coach with a record of 337 wins and 144 losses in 43 years overall, with 42 of those years being at Sheridan High School: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates Coach Larry "Bud" Wright on the incredible achievement of becoming Indiana's winningness active football coach and thanks him for his many years of dedication to the young people of our state.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Coach Larry "Bud" Wright and to Sheridan High School.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 52

Representatives Buck and Turner introduced House Resolution 52:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION congratulating the Sheridan High School football team on winning their 9th Class 1A state title.

Whereas, The Sheridan High School Blackhawks have a long-standing, winning tradition and begin each football season with the goal to work hard, embody the best of teamwork, and win the state championship;

Whereas, The team is expertly guided by Coach Larry "Bud" Wright who has coached the Blackhawks since 1966;

Whereas, By a score of 34 to 28, Sheridan defeated Rockville in the 2007 Class 1A state championship game;

Whereas, This victory marked the 3rd consecutive and 9th overall Class 1A state football championship for Sheridan High School;

Whereas, This victory also marked the 36th win in a row for the Blackhawks, good for fourth place on the all-time state list;

Whereas, The Sheridan High School Blackhawks football team is an example of excellence and is a source of pride to their school, community, and state: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates the Sheridan High School football team and Coach

Bud Wright on their 2007 Class 1A state title victory.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Coach Bud Wright and to Sheridan High School.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 53

Representative Bauer introduced House Resolution 53:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION recognizing the 15th anniversary of the Indiana Campus Compact.

Whereas, The Indiana Campus Compact involves students, faculty, and staff in service-learning and civic engagement in order to engage citizens, prepare tomorrow's leaders, and contribute to the quality of life in America's communities;

Whereas, Indiana Campus Compact's 46-member colleges and universities are catalysts for addressing community concerns through numerous service-oriented faculty, staff, and student projects;

Whereas, Indiana Campus Compact supports the integration of service-learning and civic engagement into campus culture by facilitating collaborations, sponsoring programs, sharing best practices, and promoting awareness of higher education's role in graduating well-informed, engaged citizens;

Whereas, Indiana Campus Compact is the premier source for professional development, technical assistance, and statewide collaboration related to service-learning and civic engagement;

Whereas, Indiana Campus Compact advances citizenship and service as critical components of higher education; and

Whereas, 2008 marks the 15th anniversary of the establishment of the Indiana Campus Compact: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives recognizes the Indiana Campus Compact for 15 years of contributions to the state of Indiana in promoting community service, civic engagement, service-learning, and partnerships between campuses and communities.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Jackie McCracken, executive director of the Indiana Campus Compact.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 54

Representative Austin introduced House Resolution 54:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION recognizing the Highland High School Marching Highlanders.

Whereas, On August 8, 2007, the Highland High School Marching Highlanders competed with bands from all over Indiana at the Indiana State Fair Band Day Competition;

Whereas, The Marching Highlanders, 120 members strong, were victorious, capturing first place performing their show entitled Highland Cathedral;

Whereas, The Marching Highlanders are known throughout Indiana for their tradition of excellence and their unique music and uniforms;

Whereas, The Marching Highlanders have performed in the 2002 Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade and the 1992, 1999, and 2006 Indianapolis 500 Parade, and they have applied for entry into the 2009 Presidential Inaugural Parade; and

Whereas, High school bands have been entertaining Hoosiers at sporting events and competitions for as long as anyone can remember, and the Highland High School Marching Highlanders are an accomplished group of young people who deserve special recognition for their achievements: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives congratulates the Highland High School Marching Highlanders on their victory at the 2007 Indiana State Fair Band Day and wishes them continued success in all their future endeavors.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the members of the Highland High School Marching Highlanders, band director Douglas Fletcher, assistant director Stephen Stickler, assistant principal Albert Young, and principal Mark Finger.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 55

Representatives Bauer and Bosma introduced House Resolution 55:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring Donald W. Moreau, Sr. for his distinguished public service career upon his 80th/20th birthday.

Whereas, Donald W. Moreau, Sr., spent his first career in military service, enlisting in the U.S. Navy in 1945 at age 17 and serving in the Pacific Theater in World War II aboard the USS Cecil J. Doyle and witnessing the Japanese surrender in Tokyo Bay on September 2, 1945, and received a direct commission into the U.S. Army in 1948, and rose to the rank of Colonel following service in Korea and Vietnam, retiring in 1973 with almost 28 years of credited service and 30% permanent disability due to his combat injuries;

Whereas, Col. Moreau spent his second career in service to the State of Indiana as the executive director of the Department of Commerce, executive director of the State Student Assistance Commission, general manager of the Toll Road, executive director of the Emergency Medical Services Commission, the Commissioner of the Department of Labor, executive director of the State Fair, and project director of the Vietnam & Korean Wars Memorial Committee;

Whereas, Col. Moreau received the Sagamore of the Wabash award from Governors Bowen, Orr, Bayh, O'Bannon and Kernan for his service to the State of Indiana;

Whereas, Col. Moreau's last full-time job was President/CEO of the Hoosier Veterans Assistance Foundation, where he dedicated himself to serving homeless veterans;

Whereas, Col. Moreau was born on February 29, 1928, making him a "Leap Year Baby;"

Whereas, Col. Moreau will turn 80 on February 29, 2008—or 20, as he insists: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of Indiana

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives commends Col. Donald W. Moreau, Sr. for his distinguished career in public service upon his 80th/20th birthday.

SECTION 2. The Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Col. Donald W. Moreau, Sr.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 56

Representative Reske introduced House Resolution 56:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring Judi Ketring for her dedicated service to education.

Whereas, Judi Ketring has been a teacher for 14 years, an assistant principal for 2 years and the Principal of Killbuck Elementary School for 6 years;

Whereas, Judi has been a dedicated advocate of special education, curriculum, innovation, and community involvement;

Whereas, Judi has been instrumental in the development of children and bringing together students, teachers, parents, and the community, involving them in volunteer efforts such as Character Counts and Child Aid Africa; and

Whereas, Judi was influential in resolving a significant health and environmental issue at her school, mitigating a solution while keeping parents informed and students in school; Therefore:

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives recognizes Judi Ketring for all her hard work and dedication to the development and education of children and wishes her well in all her future endeavors.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Judi Ketring and her family.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

With consent of the members, the Speaker returned to bills on third reading.
